

USEE

What your friends are reading

HEAR

Super stories from around the globe in W.O.T.S.

Handle some brilliant mystery objects from WW1

SMELL

Mmmmm cake - which teacher likes lemon drizzle?

TASTE

Your own splat-tastic homemade ketchup

You are now entering the sweet side of this comic. Expect lovely things and cute monsters you want to cuddle.

WELLO EXERNO

Welcome to this year's edition of KAPOW! - issued to celebrate Coombe Hill's second writers' week.

This is the senses issue or is it the senseless issue? I am not sure, you will have to decide. However this edition of Kapow is all about taste, sight, hearing, touch and smell. In fact we wanted to make a special "scratch and sniff" edition of the magazine - where you could scratch a page to smell a Viking's armpit or another page to enjoy the gentle aroma of my feet. Sadly though, that was too expensive so instead you have the Sweet and Sour edition, just choose your cover depending on your taste.

Writers appeal to the senses in all kinds of ways and the best description will include lots of description of sights, sounds, smells and tastes and textures. We hope to see some great writing from you this week and for you to meet some great writers from different walks of life. The magazine is also full of some fantastic competitions with great prizes so you had better get busy.

We are writers!

Put your skills to the test and win prizes! Look for this sign.

I hope you have a fantastic week.

Mr Clutterfly Clutterbuck

Don't forget to take part in Coombe Hill's BIG Read Enjoy the books you read and get lots of sponsors!

Sarah Holding Sarah Holding is author of the time-travelling eco-adventures. The SeaBEAN Trilogy. When she is not writing she enjoys playing saxophone in a jazz band. She will be talking to Y5 on masterclass in feature writing to Y4. Wednesday.

Marcia Williams

Marcia Williams is an author and illustrator.

She has two nicknames, Mars Bar and Dotty, ask her and you'll find out why. She will be holding a workshop for Y6.

Helen East

Helen East is a storyteller who looks to develop language and literacy skills through story and wordplay. She will be giving storytelling workshops for pupils in the lower and upper schools.

David Alric

David Alric is the author of the Bonaventure Trilogy. He will be talking to Y6 about 'The Promised One' on Thursday.

Josie Golden

Josie Golden is a freelance journalist and PR consultant whose articles have appeared in The Guardian and The Telegraph. She will be giving a

Rachel Rooney

Rachel Rooney is a poet and the author of the prize winning collection

'The Language of Cat' which is full of wordplay, riddles and poems that will make you laugh. She will be talking to Y6 on Thursday.

Kit Wright

Kit Wright is a poet who has written more than 25 books for adults and children. His performances are fun and joyful with his poems taking pleasure in the comical and absurd. He will be holding a poetry workshop on Friday.

Dr Jane Furlong

Dr Jane Furlong is Head of Exhibits, Department of Collections at the Imperial War Museum - she will be talking about writing historic descriptions and the pupils will get a chance to be curators themselves.

Liz Beardsworth

Liz is a journalist with the film magazine Empire. She'll be talking to Y5 and Y3 about how to write a great film review and get your opinion down on paper.

Alex Milway

Alex Milway is an author and illustrator. His work includes The Mousehunter Trilogy and he runs the Twitter feed (a) thisbookisfunny. He will be talking to Y3 about picture books on Tuesday.

Hugh Fraser

Hugh is the founder of Storynory, a website and podcast that is chockablock with free audio stories for kids read by professional actors. He will be talking about and telling stories to Yr4.

Our lovely panel.

What are the teachers' favourite tastes, smells, sights and sounds? We asked them. (Turn to page 8 for their most was tastes, smells, sights and sounds!)

Favourite smell?

Orange blossoms in the summer

Miss Mander...

Cakes being cooked in the oven

Ms Camburn... My mum's cottage pie

Mrs Carlton... Bacon sandwiches cooking

Mr Clutterbuck...

Bacon sandwiches - I was a vegetarian for 25 years until a bacon sandwich broke me.

Favourite sight?

Mrs Bishop... My grandson's face

Miss Mander...

The sun rising over the mediterranean ocean (and my face!)

Ms Camburn...

All of New York from the top of the Empire State Building

Mrs Carlton...

My children playing happily

Mr Clutterbuck...

The first sight of a Cornish sea at the start of the holiday - but only if it's sunny!

Favourite taste?

Mrs Bishop... Sticky toffee pudding

Miss Mander...

Freshly squeezed orange juice or freshly cooked porrige

Ms Camburn...

Lemon sorbet

Mrs Carlton...

A lemonade ice lolly on a very hot day

Mr Clutterbuck...

My wife's lasagna cooking fresh from the oven closely followed by a really lemony lemon drizzle cake.

Favourite sound?

Mrs Bishop... My grandson's giggles

Miss Mander...

The giggles of my nephews

Ms Camburn...

Miss Holden's xylophone group at Christmas

Mrs Carlton... Laughter

Mr Clutterbuck...

Friends and family laughing - as long as it's not at me

Listen up!

Word on the Street has some great stories, from around the world, for you to listen to - simply go the website and click and play.

Listen to Nicholas and his mum Sonia telling us an Aztec story called the 'Rabbit in the Moon' in English and Spanish.

See what talented writers we have at Coombe Hill. Who knows. It could be your work on there...

www.coombehilljuniors.wix:com/thewordonthestreet

ARE YOU A RUE COOMBIANS

In our school story, The Coombian Riddle, we were introduced to the Coombian Race, who travel through history to help defeat evil.

Thomas and Aysha are the newest Coombians but who will be next?

Could you be a true Coombian?

Take our test to find out!

You are surrounded by the soldiers from the forces of evil?

Do you:

- a) Fight them all single handed you might not win but at least you show your bravery
- b) Use your creative skills to create an argument between the soldiers and then escape while they have lost attention and are arguing among themselves
- c) Give up they 've got you surrounded, you might as well just wait and see what happens.
- d) Use your pack of imaginary guard wolves to protect you.

You find yourself back in pre-historic times. The local people give you a bow and arrow to go hunting for food but the first time you use it, the arrow just slips on to the floor and the tribe laugh

Do you:

- a) Go hunting without your bow and arrow you can use your bare hands
- b) Go off and practice, if you keep going, you are sure you can be as good as any of them
- c) Throw your bow on the floor and refuse to carry on
- d) Go off by yourself to get food, there has to be a McDonalds somewhere near here.

In your local tribe, there is an argument about who should be the next chief.

Do you:

- a) Demand that you are chosen to be chief immediately you are obviously the only person with any sense
- b) Encourage everyone to work together to decide what is important for the tribe and how they can help each other. When they know that they want for the village next, it will be easier to find the right chief.
- c) Move to another village if they can 't agree on who the next chief is, they will never agree on anything
- d) Write to Mr Clutterbuck and ask him to take over
- he clearly likes being in charge.

A sleeping dragon awakes, it needs food and is heading towards your village.

Do you:

- a) Relax. A dragon is basically just a big lizard, right?
 What's to be scared of?
- b) Think creatively. Leave out some food with sleeping tablets in. Once we've caught it, we can train it to be our guard dragon.
- d) Wrap yourself in tin foil and get a fire-extinguisher.

You are taking in the view at a waterfall, you notice a man in trouble in the fast flowing water. He is heading towards the drop.

Do you:

- a) Dive into the water straight and try and save them
- b) Leap onto the nearest boat and tell the captain where to go. Get ready to lift him aboard
- c) Point out an interestingly shaped cloud and pretend you haven 't noticed the man. It really is his own fault if he goes swimming out of his depth.
- d) Go to the shop and buy some flippers, a snorkel, a Coombe Hill swimming hat and a really nice swimming costume so that you look good in the pictures of the rescue.

Now try this at home...

CHART YOUR OWN KETCHUP

KETCHUF

Mmm chips without ketchup... what are you thinking - but did know you can make your own (sort of) healthy version?

Thanks to Simon MacDonnell of Papadeli restaurant for his recipe.

Papadeli Homemade Tomato Ketchup (makes about 2 litres)

Love ketchup? You'll absolutely love this – it has so much more flavour than your usual bought ketchup. Goes with everything. Particularly good with bacon ciabatta rolls. Delicious! If you fancy a bit of a kick, add some tobacco or chilli flakes!

What you'll need

- 2-3 cloves or garlic, crushed
- 2-3 large white onions, chopped
- 1 teaspoon of paprika
- O 3 cloves
- Half a tspn of ground nutmeg
- 1 tspn celery salt
- 5 tablespoons of sunflower oil
- 2 kg of ripe tomatoes (you can used tinned if you like)
- 4 tablespoons of fructose
- 140ml red wine vinegar

• 200ml apple juice

• Salt and pepper

late tomato say to the early tomato? A. You go ahead and I'll Ketchup

What you'll do

In a big, big pan, gently fry the onions, garlic, celery salt and spices in the oil - keep an eye on it to make sure the onions don't go brown.

In order to skin the tomatoes, soak them in boiling water for about 5 minutes - they should then just come off fairly easily.

Cut them and quarter them and scrape out the seeds.

Go back to your pan of soft onions and spices and add the tomatoes, fructose and vinegar. Season with salt and pepper and give a good stir on a low heat. Leave for about 2 hours so it all goes lovely and soft.

Blitz the mixture into a puree - it's up to you how smooth you want it

As this makes quite a lot, you can freeze it in Tupperware or bottle it. Delicious! We serve ours with bacon butties – it's so unctuous and lovely and it has a real tomato tang!

WE WANT YOUR RECIPES!

Have you got a great 'sweet' or 'sour/savoury' recipe that is special to your family or can you create your own? Send yours to the office by 26 Feb and you could win a £15 voucher to have a sit-in meal at Stone Pizza.

If you chose mainly As

You are clearly very brave, just like a true Coombian but bravery is only good when it is combined with clever thinking. Maybe you need to develop your ability to think creatively and know that you do not always have to charge at a problem but can use your imagination to sort it out.

If you chose mainly Cs

A Coombian thinks of other people, tries hard to be the best they can be and never gives up. You don't seem quite there yet. These are some of the qualities that you need to develop more before you become a true Coombian.

If you chose mainly Ds

You clearly have a good imagination, and like to think 'outside the box' but maybe this is a little too far outside the box. A Coombian makes sure they know what is possible now as well as what they want to do in the future but they are realistic.

If you chose mainly Bs

Congratulations. You have the potential to be a true Coombian. You are already creative and encouraging and always aspire to do the right thing and be the best that you can. You don't give up when you face a problem and you think of other people too. Look out for notes from strangers, coins and a key — one day you too might be travelling through time and sorting out the problems of the universe.

'The Maze Runner' by James Dashner

CHOSEN BY NILA

'The Demon Dentist' by David Walliams

Alfie never goes to the dentist. The best bit is when a witch takes out Alfie's teeth.'

CHOSEN BY EDIE

Big Nate by Lincoln Pierce

"It's about a boy who goes to middle school and has an unlucky life. It's a comedy. Our favourite it is when he 's in his pants a gets locked outside his hotel roo

CHOSEN BY OMAR

'Diary of a Wimpy Kid' by Jeff Kinney

Thomas gets trapped in this world talled The Glade which a massive naze. His task is to try escape and

CHOSEN BY LEVI AND GAO KAI

'Girl Missing by Sophie Mckenzie

Lauren goes on a website about missing children and she finds someone who looks just like her. I recommend it to people over ten years, it is quite scary.'

CHOSEN BY EDIE

Gangsta Granny by Dávid Walliams

"A young boy and his granny plan to rob the crown jewels. He dislikes his grandmother at first until he realises she has more talents than he thinks.

CHOSEN BY JUJHAR

'A little history of Science' by William Bynum nis book goes over a range of osophers and scientists from o Benjamin Franklin. It's a reallu interesting read for science lovers.

CHOSEN BY YOUSOF

Marie Sin

'The Witches' by Roald Dahl

's about a boy, called Bruno nose parents died so his grand nother looked after him. The best bit when he is turned into a mouse.'

CHOSEN BY REANNA

'Awful Auntie' by David Walliams

There is a girl called Stella whose mum and dad dies and she has to get looked after by her auntie. I loved it, my favourite part is when the balloon farts across the sky."

CHOSEN BY GRACE

'The Coombian Riddle' by The Pubils of Coombe Hill

"It's about two children that find a coin and key and go to many historical places. I would recommend it because it has a lot of suspense.'

CHOSEN BY JOAO

The Werepuppy by Jacqueline Wilson

"There is a boy called Nicky and he has four sisters. My favourite part is when he gets the puppy and it bit Mary Gold. I think everyone should

CHOSEN BY OMAR

Letters are a great way to get your point across. Can these 3 CHJ students convince you that some famous characters are not how Visitwww.coombehilljuniors:wix.com/thewordonthestreet they seem?

THINGS JUST TURNED DOES DOBBY DESERVE UGLY FOR CINDERS

The Ugly Step Sister Number One writes...

Dear Beloved Sting,

In addition to that 50% of the population does not believe she is the rivisest choice to rule our land. Experts have claimed that, ruhen somebody has never had the opportunity to be royal and make decision, s it may affect their well being by becoming stressed. I'm sure an intelligent person like yourself, will agree that society's opinion does matter. Don't you?

by Innayah

Should the king banish his beloved? Read more on W.O.T.S.

HIS FREEDOM?

Dobby (The House Elf) writes...

Dear Mr Dumbledore

I am writing to inform you that I wish to be freed. Many events have lead Dobby to this conclusion.

Firstly, Dobby's owner Mr Malfoy, is extremely mean and is unfair to Dobby. I am underfed and treated as having no worth. House elves are meant to be well treated and fed well. Dobby needs 25g (daily) of healthy vegetarian food; instead I am fed 6g of meat (daily) which Dobby refuses to eat. Elves are strictly vegetarian! How would you feel if you were enslaved and mistreated?

by Justin

Should Dobby get more green veg? Find out more on W.O.T.S.

DO ORCS HAVE FEELINGS TOO? ORC 0168004 writes...

DEAR I K K TOLKEIN

WE ARE TREATED LIKE SCUM AND TEST DUMMIES, GANDALF, HOGNOG AND BILBO (JUST TO NAME A FEW) ALWAYS TRY OUT NEW SPELLS ON US. MY POOR, POOR AUNT CATHY WAS OUT THE OTHER DAY DOING GIMLY'S LAUNDRY WHEN SUDDENLY GANDALF JUMPED OUT FROM BEHIND A TREE, SHOULED OUT "OVER HERE!", THEN TURNED HER INTO A DUCK! THE SPELL

Are the Hobbits really the bad guys? Read the full letter on W.O.T

YUCK

Miss Mander

Mrs Ca

rs Bishop Ms Ca

What are the teachers' worst tastes, smells, sights and sounds?

We asked them... (turn to page 3 for their most YUMMY tastes, smells, sights and sounds!)

Our panel..

Worst smell?

Mrs Bishop... A dead rat in friend's shed

Miss Mander... Milk gone off

Ms Camburn... The car fumes in Bangkok

Mrs Carlton...
Dirty nappie

Mr Clutterbuck...

Fox poo is quite high on the list - especially when you realise it's on your shoel

Hi!

Worst possible meal

Mrs Bishop...
Sprouts with mussels and coconut bread

Miss Mander...

Wet, overcooked pasta with hot spicy tomato and almond sauce and liver

Ms Camburn...

Well done steak, mushy peas and sloppy tomatoes served with milk

Mrs Carlton...
Mushrooms
and Stilton

Mr Clutterbuck... Rice pudding and prunes A sight ruins your day?

Mrs Bishop... Heaps of washing-up

Miss Mander... Mess! Dirty plates, cups

Ms Camburn...
Dirty laundry
on the floor

Mrs Carlton... Lots of litter lying around

Mr Clutterbuck...
People being unkind to one another

Most ear-bleeding sound?

Mrs Bishop...
Some of Mr
Bishop's favourite jazz music

Miss Mander... My alarm clock

Ms Camburn... Miss Holden's Nails on a chalk board

Mrs Carlton...

Neighbour's dog constantly barking when I am trying to read a book in the garden

Mr Clutterbuck...
One of my children slamming the car door when they are grumpy or angry.

9

6

Smell

3 Brilliantly smelly books for you to read

Let's face it Mr Stink is whiffy ... we can smell him from here

'Pooh! Is that you, Bertie? by David Roberts

Bertie's Gran's always letting rip. She just blames the cat."

You can smell the evil Monsieur Bellybutton all the way from France!

MAKE YOUR OWN SLIME

(your mum might not like it!!)

What you'll need...

- Water
- Cornstarch
- Bowl
- Food colouring bogey green is our favourite
- Measuring spoons

What you'll do...

In a bowl, combine 1 cup of water with 1 cup of cornstarch and mix with fingers until you reach a slimy, smooth consistency.

Add in a few drops of food coloring and your DIY slime is ready for fun!

COOMBIAN WRITING COMPETITION

Among the records of the Coombians, there are many mysteries.

One of them surrounds the story of Heppel the Great. This scrap of paper was left in the Sacred Coombian Collection. The start of this ballad is all that is left of Heppel's story and is the only information we have found so far about Heppel's life...

"Seppel the Great must not be forgot

A hero, a warrier, a saviour, the lot

Seppel listened and answered and followed the call In the Coombian world, perhaps the greatest of all.

We do not even know if Heppel was a man or a woman, a boy or a girl.

Can you finish the story in your own words, explaining what great thing or things Heppel did. If you can write it as a ballad (a story in poetry form, even better). There will be prizes for the best ideas and the winning ballad or story will be published later in the Year when The Coombian Riddle II is published as a book or a Kindle.

OH NO, NOT YOU AGAIN ...

I hope you are not expecting an introduction!

I am not wasting my time with that! If you want a load of fancy welcoming words go to the other side of this magazine and read that along with all the other sweet stuff. Yuk!

Mr Clutterbuck the Beserker

Can you put up with the pong of our smelly books recommendations for Coombe Hill's Big Read? Hold your nose and get lots of sponsors.

THE SCHOOL STORY IS BACK!

...and now the Vikings have arrived!

After meeting the Romans in their first adventure, young Coombians, Aysha and Thomas, are now continuing their adventures in Viking times. Having received a message from Max - seemingly from beyond the grave, they know they have a job to do as the newest of all Coombians. Doubtless they will meet new friends as well as new villains along the way.

There have been many famous Vikings in history—some with particularly interesting names. For example:

• Eric Bloodaxe

Olvir the Child-Sparer

Sigtrygg the Fast-Sailing

♦ Thorir Leather-Neck

Not to mention the unfortunate Thorstein Ill-Luck

Over the next few weeks, classes will take turns to continue the story of Aysha and Thomas's adventure and introduce new characters. However, you have the opportunity to create a new Viking character of your own in Kapow's Design a Viking competition...

All you have to do is to draw an original Viking character and decide a suitable Viking nickname for him or her.

Entries to the school office by the end of Writers' Week (26th February).

There are prizes for the winning entries including having your design published in the published version of the latest Coombian story when it is made into a book and Kindle this summer.

Create your own viking competition!

Turn to page 2 for a full list of who's coming to Writers' Week!

We've mismashed CHJ teachers with some of your favourite book characters Can you guess WHO'S WHO Answers at the bottom of the page. 3 Mr Hughes's mouth 4. Mrs Hartnell's head, Finn's (Star Wars) eyes + nose, Miss Holden's mouth,

Mr Clutterbuck's eyes, Hermione's (Harry Potter) nose + mouth 🕉, Fungus the Bogeyman's head, Mrs Carlton's eyes & mouth, L. Mr Held's head, Hiccup's (How to Train Your Dragon) eye's & nose, Miss Mander's mouth 🙎 Ms Metcalfe's head,

Sponsored by Ali Warner Editorial • Designed by Clare Spencer Design

If you can workout who's who in our face mishmash

TOUCH

Create your own slime that feels a bit like bogeys

SMELL

Rotten eggs in our selection of stinky books

Belches and battleaxes in the new Viking adventure for the Coombians

TASTE

Some squelchy homemade ketchup

YOU ARE NOW ENTERING THE SOUR SIDE OF THIS COMIC - IT WILL BE NASTY AND A BIT SMELLY (BUT WE LIKE IT THAT WAY)